

YOU HAVE BEEN A FAITHFUL SERVANT, ITF DG EXTOLS E KING

The Director General of the Industrial Training Fund, (ITF) Sir Joseph Ari has described the former Head, Audit Unit, Mr Vincent Dan Eking as an astute accountant who paid attention to details.

He said this during the management valedictory session held in honour of Mr Vincent Dan Eking, who retired from the services of the ITF recently.

The DG said in the past two years, the ITF had lost many capable hands who have served the Fund meritoriously and retired, noting that Mr Eking was another strong committed and dedicated hand that had to leave the Fund.

He lamented that “if it were possible, we would have loved to have you longer, but statutory it is wrong and because it is wrong, we know nature has opened a better door for you”.

He stated further that Mr Eking had served meritoriously and it was good that he was leaving the Fund strong and healthy.

Ari urged him not to forget the ITF as his wealth of experience and expertise could be required as the ITF journeys to its pride of place.

In a goodwill message during the session, the Director, Information and Communication Technology Department, Mr. Dickson Onuoha, described Mr Eking as a very careful and result oriented individual, who was ever ready to share knowledge.

He said the ITF would surely miss him and prayed that the Lord would be with him even as he has begun another phase of life.

In his remarks, Mr Eking thanked the DG and other members of management and thanked God for giving him the opportunity to serve in the management and promised to always keep in touch with the ITF.

He urged other members of the management to join forces together as they work for the common goal of the ITF.
