

ARI EULOGISES OUTGOING DIRECTOR OF CPD

The Director General and Chief Executive of the Industrial Training Fund, Sir Joseph N. Ari has commended the outgoing Director of Corporate Planning Department, Mrs Ada Okonkwo for her contributions to the growth of the Fund.

Sir Ari who was speaking during a valedictory session in honour of Mrs Okonkwo at the Board Room of the Fund's Headquarters, described her as woman of faith, humble and easy going, which made working with her very easy.

His words: "Mrs Okonkwo is a woman of grace who came into the Fund as a secretary and rose through the ranks and became a Director".

While wishing Mrs Okonkwo the best in her future endeavour, the Director General also urged her to continue to see the ITF as her family always and could be called upon at any time to offer her inputs to the Fund.

In separate good will messages, members of the ITF Management described Mrs Okonkwo as committed and dedicated servant of the Fund.

The Director of Information and Communication Technology Department, Mr Dickson Onuoha said Mrs Okonkwo would be remembered for her commitment, dedication and determination and prayed God to grant her good health in her life after retirement.

Speaking during the valedictory session, the outgoing Director thanked God for making it possible to see the day of her retirement and appreciated the Director General's support during her work career.

While praying God to give the DG wisdom to move ITF forward in the right direction, Mrs Okonkwo also thanked the Management for their support and understanding and Heads of Division and entire staff of the Corporate Planning Department for their patience, hardwork and dedication.

She prayed God to keep the Fund and give wisdom to the Management to move ITF forward.

The husband of the celebrant, Mr Okonkwo appreciated the DG and his Management for moving ITF forward. He described Sir Ari as manager of men and materials.

He prayed for the continuous development and progress of ITF and also thanked the Management and entire staff of the Fund for their prayers and support for his wife's retirement.
