

CRUTECH BANK BAGS ITF AWARD

Cross River University of Technology Community Micro Finance Bank (CRUTECH) has won the ITF Best Human Resource Award for Companies under the purview of Calabar Area Office.

The Award was presented to the Company during a recent visit by Management of Calabar Area Office to the Bank.

Presenting the Award, the Area Manager, Mr Idongesit Akpan, lauded the Bank for prompt payment of training contribution, acceptance of students on Students Industrial Work Experience Scheme (SIWES) and patronage of ITF Programmes. He stated that coupled with the cordial relationship that had existed between the bank and the ITF, recognizing them had become a matter of necessity which could not be avoided.

He stressed the need for the two organizations to maintain the cordial relationship for their mutual benefit particularly in the area of human capital development.

In his contributions, the Head of Revenue, Inspectorate and Compliance Department of the Calabar Area Office, Prince Fyne Enyekit assured the Bank of payment of their reimbursement claims and also disclosed that portal administrators were now available to ensure a hitch-free process for clients to remit their payments to ITF.

Receiving the award, the Managing Director of the Bank, Mr. Maurice Ekpenyong expressed delight on the Award and indicated that the existing relationship between the ITF and the CRUTECH would be deepened.
